

The Uptown Association Presents:

Progressive Dinner

July 25, 2009

This event will feature 7 restaurants that will be providing a taste of their fine cuisine sure to delight the toughest critics. As you stroll through Uptown Whittier with friends, Seta, Zi Teresa, Golden Triangle, Bottle Room, Allen's Barbeque, and Crepes and Grapes, will await your arrival on a cool July evening sure to be filled with fun and excitement. Top the night off at California Grill where you will enjoy a fabulous dessert and a performance by professional harpist Iris Harris. This event will benefit the SKILLS Foundation an operational foundation that provides prevention, academic, and enrichment programs for local youth.

Featured Restaurants:

Zi Teresa: Noting but the best!

In 1890, the world famous Gaetano's was created where celebrities such as 'Liz Taylor, Jayne Mansfield, and Grace Kelly dined. The founder of this establishment the late Master Chef Gaetano Buraglia, kept over 100 years of family secrets to enhance his patrons dining experience. His experiences circled the globe. Yet his specialty remained classic Italian cuisine couple with a fine dining experience! Today, his son has continued his tradition with Zi Teresa. Zi Teresa is a tribute to quality and five generations of culinary artistry.

The Bottle Room is located at 6741 Greenleaf Avenue in Uptown Whittier. It is open from noon to midnight. This wine & bar restaurant is quickly becoming one of Uptown Whittier's hot spots. A small patio area welcomes patrons inside where a bar sits along an exposed brick wall and bottles lined upward behind the bar. Chef Tony Alcazar loves to throw his own spin on typical items like macaroni and cheese. The restaurant also features a big variety of not-so-typical beer is offered on tap and in small and large bottles, as well as well-selected wines. The food menu offers a variety of simple dishes that are jazzed up a notch.

THE BOTTLE ROOM

California Grill Restaurant pays close attention to all aspects of your dining experience with emphasis on flavor, freshness and presentation.

They offer a large selection of beer, wine, coffee specialty drinks and desserts.

"The quality of the crepes is fantastic, and the chefs should be applauded. Not only are the crepes tasty, but unique Panini's and salads, along with a beverages of both hot and cold drinks, make the menu highly edible."

- Whittier College Paper, Arts & Entertain

GOLDEN ▲ TRIANGLE

Golden Triangle serves authentic and tasty Burmese cuisine in a simple, low-ambiance setting. The menu offers generic Thai and Chinese items as well, but the Burma basics are said to be the best in the Southland.

Setá ◦ dine and Lounge

Setá, a contemporary dining establishment, complete with steakhouse favorites showcasing critically acclaimed Executive Chef Hugo Molina's Modern American Cuisine with Spanish and Asian influences, is located in the heart of historic uptown Whittier. Chef Molina hand selects and prepares all of the steaks over mesquite wood. At Seta we believe in using sustainable farming and organically grown produce resources and provide our own eco friendly water filtration system.

Designed by Akar Studios, Seta's interior seamlessly transforms throughout the afternoon and evening from a sophisticated yet relaxed dining atmosphere into a late night dining lounge. Outdoor dining is available for a more casual experience and can accommodate up to 20 guests.

$75
Individual

$120
Couple